

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Partisan propaganda should be clearly identified as such, rather than offered in the guise of a news story. Sinclair is apparently intent on disregarding the obligations that accompany a broadcast license.

Yours truly,
Robert Utsman